2017 Conference Pack

Welcome to Queenstown

Rugged mountains, majestic lakes, crystal clear air; Queenstown will leave your delegates and incentive qualifiers with memories like no other. Famously coined the 'Adventure Capital of the World', Queenstown can offer your delegates the time of their life. From bungee jumping and jet boating to wine tasting and soothing day spas, they might not want to leave. A sophisticated holiday resort set in the magnificent landscape of the Southern Alps, Queenstown combines adventure with luxury and sheer indulgence. Daily Trans-Tasman and domestic flights into Queenstown make this an easy choice and truly unique destination for your next conference or event.

Location

With stunning views of the aptly named Remarkables mountain range, Copthorne Hotel and Resort Queenstown, Lakefront is conveniently located just a short 3 minute stroll to the centre of town and situated directly across the road from our 'sister' hotel, Millennium Hotel Queenstown. Your delegates will love it here! The hardest part of the convention process will be putting them on the flight home when it's all over.

The Hotel

Copthorne Hotel and Resort Queenstown, Lakefront blends superior facilities and comfort with friendly personal service. Situated within a tranquil garden setting, the hotel offers a relaxing atmosphere combined with stunning panoramic lake and mountain views, perfect for business or pleasure.

Copthorne Hotel and Resort Queenstown, Lakefront is endorsed with a Qualmark 4 star and an Enviro Gold rating. This establishes the hotel's position as a premier environmentally aware accommodation provider.
