2017 Conference Pack

Welcome to Te Anau

Peaceful Te Anau lies nestled on the edge of Lake Te Anau, the largest lake in the South Island, with the stunning backdrop of Mt Luxmore and the Murchison mountains. Known as the 'Walking Capital of the World', Te Anau is the gateway to the World Heritage Area Fiordland National Park, home of Mitre Peak and the Fiords of Milford Sound and Doubtful Sound. Rich in natural history, breathtaking scenery and offering an array of activities such as scenic flights, cruises, glowworm caves and wilderness walks, Te Anau is a great base for your next conference or retreat. The ideal place for your delegates to relax and recharge or get active in the surrounding landscapes.

Location

Set amongst manicured garden on the shores of Lake Te Anau, the town centre is only a ten minute stroll away. 121km from Milford Sound, the scenic drive is a comfortable 2.5 hours including stops for photos and short walks. Te Anau is 175km from Queenstown, about a 2 hour drive, the best access for domestic flights into the region.

The Hotel

Kingsgate Hotel Te Anau offers a range of facilities with friendly, personalised southern hospitality and impressive lake and mountain views. The perfect place for a business retreat, sales conference or to celebrate life's milestone events.

Kingsgate Hotel Te Anau is endorsed with a Qualmark 3 Plus star and an Enviro Silver rating.
