2017 Conference Pack

Welcome to Wanganui

Located on the West Coast of the North Island, most of Wanganui lies on the north western bank of the historically significant Wanganui River, the longest navigable river in New Zealand. Steeped in history, art and culture, Wanganui is big enough to draw crowds and small enough to be intimate. Surrounded by the mountains Taranaki, Ruapehu and Tongariro, dramatic west coast beaches and unspoilt native bush there is something here for every conference. Daily flights into Wanganui and only 2 hours drive north of Wellington make this destination easy to access.

Location

Located on Victoria Avenue, Kingsgate Hotel The Avenue, Wanganui is a 10 minute walk from the central business district, arts and cultural centre and sports venues.

Having the ultimate experience is one of the most effective ways to reward or inspire delegates. From team building to partner and touring programs, our dedicated conference team is here to provide you with the inspiration and tools to motivate your delegates before sending them home ready for the next challenge.

A delightful provincial centre, Wanganui is a compact town within easy walking distance to major attractions. From restored colonial buildings to beautiful parks and gardens, there is much to explore in this pleasant riverside city. Wanganui was one of the first towns to be established on the New Zealand coast and the town's heritage theme extends to cafes, specialty shops, and English-style pubs. Rich in both Maori and European cultures, its museums and art galleries are among the best in New Zealand. Explore the Wanganui National Park. Cruise, jetboat or kayak along the mighty Wanganui River. Visit the renowned Sarjeant Gallery, view local glass art works or sign up for 'glass school'. Don't be surprised to find an immediate sense of connection, an unexpected little slice of heaven, and real New Zealand authenticity.
